

MIDWEST
FOODS

INDUSTRY RECALL: Eagle Produce LLC Voluntarily Recalls Kandy Brand Whole Cantaloupe due to Salmonella

Midwest Foods is NOT Associated with this Recall

September 28th, 2023

Eagle Produce LLC is voluntarily recalling 6,456 cases of Kandy Brand whole cantaloupe due to potential salmonella contamination. The affected products were distributed between September 5th and 16th in California, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maryland, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, North Carolina, North Dakota, Ohio, South Dakota, Tennessee, Texas, Virginia, West Virginia, Wisconsin and Washington D.C. and sold in various retail supermarkets.

There have been no illnesses reported in connection with this recall.

Company: Eagle Produce LLC

Brand: Kandy

Reason: Microbiological | Bacteria | Salmonella

UPC Code:4050

Lot Codes: 797907,797900, & 804918

Once again, Midwest Foods is NOT Associated with this recall.

If you have any questions or concerns please reach out to your Business Development Associate or call Customer Service at 773.927.8870.