INDUSTRY RECALL: Fresh Start Produce Sales Initiates Recall of Whole Cucumbers Because of Possible Health Risk

Midwest Foods is NOT Associated with this Recall

June 3rd, 2024

Fresh Start Produce Sales Inc. is recalling whole cucumbers that were shipped between May 17th and May 21st due to potential Salmonella contamination. The recalled cucumbers were shipped in bulk packaging throughout Alabama, Florida, Georgia, Illinois, Maryland, North Carolina, New Jersey, New York, Ohio, Pennsylvania, South Carolina, Tennessee, Virginia, and West Virginia. The recall was initiated after the Pennsylvania Department of Agriculture informed the company that a product sample tested positive for the bacteria.
