Black Mission Figs

FEATURED ITEM

Black Mission figs are a true winter delight, with their deep purple skin, lush pink interior, and naturally sweet flavor. Perfect for adding an elegant touch to seasonal dishes, these figs shine in both savory and sweet applications. Slice them over a winter salad with arugula, goat cheese, and candied pecans, or roast them with honey and thyme for a simple yet stunning appetizer. For dessert, try them as a topping for panna cotta or baked into a rustic galette. Their unique flavor and striking appearance make fresh Black Mission figs a standout on any winter menu.
